NEWS, NOTES, NUMBERS & MORE

WWW.HUSKYBULLETIN.COM

HERE COME THE CHAMPIONS: Chanhassen won the Class AAAAA state championship last season, defeating St. Thomas Academy, 34-31, in the Prep Bowl. The Storm and Cadets represent two of the three teams that defeated the Huskies in 2023. The other was Mankato West.

OUT OF THE WOODS: Chanhassen's Maxwell Woods -- rang up more than 300 yards of total offense against the Huskies last season -- was named Mr. Football in the state of Minnesota last season and is now a freshman at FCS powerhouse South Dakota State University.

WINLESS IN WEEK 1: The Storm surrendered 30 unanswered points and lost, 44-22, to Elk River last Friday in their season-opener, marking the first time since 2015 that Chanhassen lost in Week 1. The Elks rushed for 440 yards in the game and led 44-15 heading into the fourth quarter.

A DEBUT TO REMEMBER: In his first career start at quarterback, Owatonna senior Hunter Theis completed 13 of 17 passes for 177 yards and three touchdowns. He also added 28 rushing yards and one score.

COOKING AT HOME: Counting the postseason, the Huskies are 6-0 at their new home stadium and have out-scored their opponents by an average final score of 37-11.
